ARCH-COMB

¶ We present The ARCH-COMB. Arch, meaning highest; Comb, meaning top or crest, and use the word for our Annual, indicating that our aim is to reach the Highest Point in our endeavors. This little book records our meager efforts; but we trust it will be an inspiration to us and to others to go Higher. And with our emblem the name indicates our own School, West Edgecombe High. And so Our Excuse for this issue.

CLASS POEM '25

*We've come to bid you all farewell,
But cannot say good-bye—
We hope to meet somewhere again,
As years go swiftly by.*

*We're on the Great Highway to fame,
Where skies gleam red and gold;
There we can see in future years
All things that we've been told.*

*We've so enjoyed your friendships here—
And thank our parents, dear;
That when we rise to higher realms,
We want to see you near.*

*We'll ne'er forget Class Twenty-five,
Tho' far away we roam;
And we'll return to our first love—
To dear old West Edgcombe.*

BERTHA PITT, Class Poet.

SENIORS

JASPER L. CUMMINGS

"I hold, he loves me best who calls me Jack."

"Jack", as he is known to his class-mates, is a student of high ambition. Because of his good nature and scholarship he was elected President of the class. He has not only made a good record in books, but in athletics as well. We shall follow him, with great interest as he pursues his course through College, and wish him the greatest success in whatever profession he chooses.

ANNIE MAE BRAKE

*"Little modest Annie Mae
May prove that she is great some day."*

Very quiet and patient you will find Annie Mae. She is one of the most studious girls in school, and has many friends. In fact, so many friends we are afraid that she is falling in love. Any man will be lucky to get her, for she will be a neat housekeeper, judging from her work at W. E. H. S.

Vice-President of Class; Assistant Business Manager; Programme Committee of Riley Literary Society, First term.

VIRGINIA SMITH

"Presents, I often say, endear absents."

"Va" is our most dependable Senior. She is a very sweet girl and is loved by everyone. As for a studious and intellectual girl there is no one in class that matches her. She is quiet and good natured, and never hesitates to help any in need. Her favorite expression is "Not necessarily". She always knows her lesson and makes good marks on all her studies. We hope that she will make as good a record at college as she has made at W. E. H. S.

Secretary and Treasurer of Class; Programme Committee of Riley Literary Society, Last Term; Secretary and Treasurer of Athletic Association; Write-up Editor of Arch-Comb.

JULIA BAILEY

"She tried the luxury of being good."

"Ike" is the baby of the class. Altho' this is shown in her fittish passion, you couldn't tell it in her daily work. She is "a pal good and true," and always looks on the bright side of life. She is very fond of athletics. She shows much class spirit, and is always willing to go as the Class goes. Her favorite expression is: "Help yourself." May her future be as bright as her past has been.

Class Testator; President of Riley Literary Society, Last Term; Editor-in-Chief of Arch-Comb; Librarian and News Reporter, First Term; Vice-President of Athletic Association

FRANK BULLUCK

"Music hath charms."

"Frank" is the Champion of all Athletics. His ability to sing is remarkable, and owing to his musical talent he is quite often seen going around with his Cornet looking for some one who will play an accompaniment for him. He is intelligent and has a kind disposition. He has two expressions: "Either one", and "I say so". We are looking forward to the time when College will make him something great.

Captain of Boys' Basketball Team; Business-Manager of Arch-Comb; Marshall of Riley Society, First Term.

BERTHA PITT

"Poetry is the record of the best and the happiest moments of the happiest and best mind."

We will remember "Bert" by her happy smiles. She is the same sweet and kind-hearted girl wherever you meet her. She devotes much of her time to French and Geometry, and proves a faithful student in both. But with all her work she is as game at any fun as any girl in school. We predict a bright future for Bertha in whatever work she chooses.

Class Poet; Program Committee of Riley Literary Society, Last Term.

ADELIA EDWARDS

"Life is no life at all without DE-light".

"De", as she is better known, is the ring leader of mischief among the girls. She is witty, and always has an answer when "called to court" for any of her pranks, on first offense. She has a very loving disposition and is never too busy to aid any one. She is fond of school work especially Latin. With this attitude we are sure she will succeed in life.

Class Prophet; Librarian, First Term.

WILLIAM C. WORSLEY

"It is good to love the unknown".

Everyone doesn't understand "Bill", for his peculiar manner and look of sarcasm and dignity belies his good nature and kind disposition. We as a class understand him and appreciate his sincere friendship. His favorite expression is: "Ah, go on", which must have derived from coaching the second baseman, in baseball. We wish him success and happiness, through all the years.

Calendar Editor of Arch-Comb.

ELLIE STALLINGS

"I am resolved to grow fat and stay young 'till forty".

"Miss Ellie" is the type of girl that takes life and its trials in a very cheerful way. Her disposition sweet, and her unselfishness and loyalty have succeeded in making her one of our most faithful members. If she possesses a temper we have never discovered it, for she is always ready to help others with a smiling face. We all love her and wish her the greatest success wherever she goes.

Class Historian; Associate Editor of Arch-Comb; Secretary of Riley Literary Society, Last Term; Marshall Riley Society, First Term.

MARY BROWN

*"Peace is always sweet,
And So you find this girl".*

Mary came to join us as a Senior January 6th. She is a good natured, sweet tempered, little girl. Her kind disposition has won for her a warm place in the hearts of her class mates. Nothing gives her more pleasure than reading poetry. She always studies, not only to get high grades, but to accomplish something worth while. Our best wishes follow her as she leaves us.

Society Editor of Arch-Comb.

CHAMP CALHOUN

"Come now, and let us reason together".

Champ is a free and easy, Happy-go-lucky boy, that everybody likes. He is always willing to do his part when he sees its need. He is quick and intelligent and when he starts to do a thing, he never stops until he has succeeded. He has been with the girls only in a general way, and has one life-long motto: "Beware of the girls". He is the possessor of good judgment and we assure that he will accomplish something worth while, in years to come.

Joke and Associate Editor of Arch-Comb;

THE SENIORS OF '25.

(To the Class of '25, by their Principal)

We come, now loving Friends to greet you,
And to give a welcome to you all;
So share with us this Glorious privilege,
That lent enchantment to our call.

Chorus:

Seniors of dear West Edgecome!
May each one here survive,
To see Success attend our efforts,
The Seniors of '25!

With Vim and grit and Spizirinktum,
And all the Will that makes men go,
We're "climbing tho' the rocks be rugged",
And with your help we'll win I know.

Our colors, "Blue and White", are flying,
Tho' flowers can't attend alway;
But with these Emblems never dying,
Success is ours, we hope, some day!

(Carl Midway)

WEST EDGECOMBE HIGH (School Song)

(To the High School, by their Principal)

Of West Edgecombe High School, we're singing a lay,
And while singing our hearts fill with pride;
For the work we have done and the things we have learned,
We hold Thee as giver and guide.

Chorus:

We will sing of our dear High School ever,
May her name and good works never die;
As we come with fond praises to give her,
Sing Hail! To our West Edgecombe High!

We'll praise dear West Edgecombe High School all our days,
We will ever be true to her name;
May Love, Peace and Union attend her always,
And bring her to honor and fame.

We'll bid you farewell, West Edge' High, some sad day,
But we'll never at heart say good-bye;
For in the arena of life, may we say,
The debt we owe Edgecombe High.

—Geo. W. Lassiter.

CLASS HISTORY OF '25.

We, the present Class of '25, entered Dixie High School in the fall of the year 1920, as Freshmen, with Miss Blanche Stewart as Principal. We almost hated this name for we were called, "The low green Freshies". There were then 23 of us: William Worsley, Jasper Cummings, Julia Bailey, Sarah Pearce, Frank Bulluck, Charlie Womble, Lucile Taylor, Lizzie Mae Griffin, Bertha Pitt, George Hagins, Rufus Thomas, George M. Proctor, Ellie Stallings, Lilas Grimes, Claudie Pollard, Adelia Edwards, Lessie Daughtridge, Bessie Taylor, Lula Mae Harrelson, Mabel Christopher, Mack Hurdle, Almeta Dickens, J. S. Stanley, and Inez Taylor.

The second year of High School, we had a new Principal, Miss Elizabeth Tolbert. We were Sophomores this year, but in making this step upward we realized that we had left behind a number of our class. We were clear of the name "Freshies" and decided we could do as well as any other class in School. Those who did not return with us were: Sarah Pearce, George M. Proctor, and Bessie Taylor.

We expected a new High School building before the year was out, but they failed to finish it and we had to continue the year in the crowded hall at Dixie.

Returning for our Junior year, we had a nice new School Building, West Edgecombe High School. We had the same Principal of whom we were very proud. We had the misfortune of losing two more of our class, George Hagins and Lilas Grimes. After Christmas our dear Principal did not return. Rev. T. L. Vernon who is still with us took her place. We had three new members to join us after Christmas: Emma Flye, Virginia Smith and Annie Mae Brake.

This year we entered with the High flowing and much Honored name of "Seniors" attached to us, of which we were very proud, but we trust that we have not dishonored that name and that none of our class ever will. We had a new Principal this time, Mr. Geo. W. Lassiter, with Mr. T. L. Vernon, Assistant Principal. This year we found to our sorrow, that we had lost more members of our Class leaving only eleven to really be "Honored Seniors", to have privileges, be looked up to, and sit on the stage and look important. And we trust that this select eleven will yet have strength to pass examinations, be preached to and go through the ordeal of sitting on the stage and receive their Diplomas.

ELLIE STALLINGS, Historian.

CLASS PROPHECY

"One Dark and Stormy night", while sitting by my Radio, as the wind was raging outside and brooding over Memories, my thoughts ran back to my classmates of '25, wondering what might have been their Fate; an idea struck me that Father Time might give me aid through the God-given instrument—"The Radio". So I tuned-in on what I thought to be the Great Prophetic Station O-M-E-G-A. I soon got the station, but "Static" was so strong and hard that I thought for sure that I had tuned-in on "Hades", but as soon as the clouds cleared away, I found that the great noise must have been caused by the Electric storm. When all was quiet I heard a voice: "Father Time, Speaking, Station Alpha, O-M-E-G-A. I can tell you the Beginning and Ending of all things Present and all things that are to come". Then I asked Him to tell me the Goings and Achievements of the class of '25. And he replied: "Dear Friend, though your Classmates are far apart we shall think of them for a while together". In My Radio Plane we shall first visit New York. There we find the Bulluck Band, a band of great reputation, playing for the famous New York Broadcasting Station, with Frank Bulluck as Director.

We then moved around to "The Follies" and saw Virginia Smith as star actress in Hatcher Hughes' famous play, 'Hell Bent For Heaven". Inspired by playing boy in Mr. Lassiter's play, "The Dip Needle".

Coming back to our Capitol we found "Captain" Julia Bailey in the Union Station, calling her train, the Florida Special, to leave in ten minutes over the A. C. L. Railroad.

At our State Capitol, we found William Worsley as Governor of the Old North State on the Woman Suffrage ticket.

Visiting other towns in our State, we found at Greenville Ellie Stallings active President of E. C. T. C.

Going west again we found perched on the top of Pilot Mountain, our beloved Class Poet, Bertha Pitt, collecting and compiling a book of her poems, which was to be sold later for a fortune and be used in the future with the Literary History of North Carolina.

On our way to the far west, we chanced to meet Dr. Jasper Cummings, a national lecturer on the "Benefit of Public Schools", at Louisville, Ky., arguing with President Mullins, that "Evolution should not be taught in the Public Schools".

Passing over Reno we spied Mary Brown as matron of the "Divorce Orphanage", playing and Mothering the little unfortunate children.

Swinging to the South, we found Rev. Champ Calhoun, D. D., among the heathen in South America with his good wife, Eve, doing a great Missionary work for the West Edgewcombe Church.

Returning to our great State, we had to alight at Charleston, S. C., on account of an Electric storm. We crossed the once Miss Annie Mae Brake and her newly-acquired husband at the "Lanier Hotel", whither they had eloped to enjoy their Honeymoon, without fear of being Divorced (In South Carolina).

Father Time, of course taught Adelia the secrets of the Radio and Radio-Plane, and she is now director of that Course at the Great Duke University.

ADELIA EDWARDS, Prophet.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Having been afflicted with this "Scholasia-Gradatism" for four long years, and realizing that we have had to have Heart-Stimulants injected into us by Pedagogical Doctors, especially in this last year of our existence, in order that we might survive until the 21st of May, we, here in Class assembled, before the All Wise and in these Presents, solemnly make our last Will and Testament before we pass out into the great Unknown: Therefore, be it Resolved: That we, the Seniors of '25, hereby Will and Bequeath to the Teachers and Pupils of West Edgcombe High School, our duties, pleasures, privileges, faults and sorrows, to have and to hold, individually or collectively as hereinafter Provided:

Article I. We Will to the future Senior Class, privileges which we never had, and our dignity as Seniors, hoping that they will use their dignity to better advantages than we have. Also we will to them our love for Geometry, hoping that they will love their teacher as much as we did ours.

Art. II. To the Sophomore, we cancel all debts of gratitude, which they feel they owe us for our love as a Sister class.

Art. III. To the Freshmen, we will the honor of becoming Sophs, hoping that they will become used to High School life.

Art. IV, Section 1. To the inexpressible joy of our parents, we relieve them of the burden of paying our enormous accounts, which have this year greeted them daily, and we assure that the promptness with which they have been met without a murmur, has been duly appreciated by us.

Sec. 2. The class leaves to Alton Stallings, Woodrow Pitt, and Fred Taylor its skill in selling candy.

Article V, Section 1. The late Jasper Cummings wishes to leave to Earl Bradley his JOB as President of the Senior Class.

Sec. 2. Annie Mae Brake leaves to Wilma Edmondson her love for Geometry.

Sec. 3. William Worsley leaves his bashfulness to Mabel Proctor, hoping that it will be of some use in years to come.

Sec. 4. To Sarah Pearce, Virginia Smith leaves her comfortable seat by the radiator.

Sec. 5. Julia Bailey wishes to leave Miss Thompson her temper, hoping that it will aid her in managing High School boys in the future.

Sec. 6. Frank Bulluck wills his love for athletics to Sidney Dickens.

Sec. 7. Mary Brown leaves her quiet and loving ways to Pauline Calhoun.

Sec. 8. Ellie Stallings leaves here seat on the grey truck to Nellie Worsley and Charles Killebrew.

Sec. 9. Champ Calhoun wills his good opportunity to go to school to Ruby Howard, so that she will not have to board next year.

Sec. 10. Bertha Pitt leaves her skill of learning History to Carolyn Morris.

Sec. 11. Adelia Edwards gives her rouge, lip-stick and powder to Myrtle Stallings, hoping that it will prove to be a good reducing medicine.

Art. VI. We as a class wish to will all our knowledge, obedience and behavior to the Faculty, to bestow on the next year's Seniors, hoping that they will keep our 99 percent record on conduct.

CODICIL

Art. VII. We leave to our beloved Principal and his Wife, our flower garden, which we started this spring, hoping that in years to come we may be remembered by them.

We hereby pledge ourselves and give our hands and Seal this the 21st day of May, 1925, Ano Domino.

(Seal) JULIA LEIGH BAILEY, Testator.

WITNESSES: Rudyard Kipling,
Zane Grey,
Sinclair Lewis.

JUNIOR CLASS POEM

We're the Class of '26.
 But won't the Juniors be in a fix,
 If we should shirk and fail to pass,
 What would become of next Senior Class?

If we fail in what we've planned,
 Then this Product won't be "Canned",
 We'll be Juniors Again, Oh, Gee!
 What a Dilema that will be!

To hear the Sophs of '25
 Shout with Glee, "They're not alive";
 But we'll prove we know the tricks,
 To make the Class of '26.

But we are not going to fail,
 For together we shall sail,
 Then a passing grade we'll fix,
 For we're the Class of '26.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Julia (Coughing)—“I am going to the store and buy some cough-drops.”
Virginia—“What for?”

* * * * *

Mr. Lassiter said one day during English period that unless we had something else on our mind, we could get higher marks on English. He said, however, that he did not know that William Worsley had something else on HIS mind!

* * * * *

Champ (Discussing Geometry)—“That’s the way I don it.”
Mrs. Quick—“That’s the way I ‘done’ it?”
Champ—“It’s the way I tried to do it.”

* * * * *

Ellie, laden with many packages and books, mounted the rear end of our school truck with much difficulty, as William looked on.
Ellie: “If you were half a gentleman, you’d have helped me up.”
William: “If you were half a woman, I would.”

* * * * *

Frank—“When I get interested in a subject, I never stop until I have embraced it thoroughly.”
Virginia—“That’s nice. DO-do you think that I am interesting?”

* * * * *

Ashley (In motor car)—“This controls the brake. It is put on quickly in case of emergency.”
Annie Mae—“Oh, I see. Something like a kimona.”

* * * * *

Mrs. Lassiter (in orchestra)—“Why don’t you pause there? Don’t you see it’s marked ‘rest’?”
Garlon—“Yes, but I’m not tired.”

* * * * *

Jasper—“I am a special investigator.”
Bertha—“What are you investigating?”
Jasper—“The theory that kissing is dangerous.”

* * * * *

Julia—“You are the luckiest man in the world.”
Champ—“How’s that?”
Julia—“You are in love with yourself and don’t know it.”

* * * * *

William—“The wise hesitate. Fools are certain.”
Adelia—“Are you sure about that?”
William—“I am certain?”
